The paragraph, 1:1-4, essentially is constructed in two major sections. These would essentially serve as the main points of the text.

Semantically, vv. 1-2 function as something of a description followed by two declarations, the first in v. 3 and the second in v. 4.

1 John 1:1-4 | Preaching Source

(1 John 1:1-4 RSV) Three things are highlighted for us in this introduction: A relationship, a fellowship, and a joy that follows. But it must all begin with this matter of relationship, for John is concerned first about the family of God. John and Peter and Paul all have different ministries, as I have suggested. It was Peter's task to talk about the kingdom of God, Paul about the church of ...

Life with Father | 1 John 1:1-4 | RayStedman.org
Here in John 1:1 John repeats this divine ‘in the beginning’, affirming the eternity and the deity of Jesus Christ. He is the One who was there ‘in the beginning’ – before everything else. There was never a time when he did not exist. Later in his Gospel John will make powerful reference to this eternality of Christ.

Study 1: John 1:1-4 - God's Word For You

John begins (1:1) by listing five ways that the revelation of Jesus Christ is historically validated. After the first, the last four are in a progression from the least (heard) to the most definite (touched). (1). Jesus Christ is validated by the historic message about Him.

Lesson 2: True Christianity (1 John 1:1-4) | Bible.org

1:1-4 That essential Good, that uncreated Excellence, which had been from the beginning, from eternity, as equal with the Father, and which at length appeared in human nature for the salvation of sinners, was the great subject concerning which the apostle wrote to his brethren.
