I have come across this story with bitterness in my heart. Flipping the story around, God is the boy owning all the birds, and he told the birds, “ I loved you dearly so I built this beautiful cage without doors for you, so that if you stay in it, you will be protected by me and be with me forever and see how you may be spared from the dangers outside this cage the whole time.

Christmas Classics: The Man And The Birds By Paul Harvey
Instead of appearing visually or speaking to us directly, deceased loved ones often send us simpler signs, ones that represent something greater. Common ones to see include butterflies, rainbows, birds, flowers—imagery associated with love and happiness. Or you may find small objects such as coins and feathers.
