Of all the theatrical genres most prized
by the Victorians,
pantomime is the only one to have survived
continuously into the
twenty-first century.
It remains as true
today as it was in the 1830s, that a visit to the pantomime

constitutes the first
theatrical experience
of most children and now, as then, a
successful
pantomime season is the key to the financial health of
most theatres.

Everyone went to

the pantomime, from Queen Victoria and
the royal family to the humblest of her subjects. It appealed equally to West End
and East End, to London and the provinces, to both
sexes and all ages.
Many Victorian
luminaries were
