INTRODUCTION: The poem " All for Love " by Lord George Bryon is a narrative poem which recounts how the days of our youth are the best and sublime but they are fleeting as well because we get older, things eventually change. The narrator of the poem just ever took delight in the lauds he got for his marvelous deeds because he craved to gain the love and consideration of a specific female, not on the grounds that he wanted to hear people commending him.

All For Love By Lord George Bryon: Summary, Theme ...

Dryden himself acknowledged that his 1667 play All for Love is an imitation of William Shakespeare's Anthony and Cleopatra, which was written in the early 1600s). It is a heroic drama that follows many of the same story beats of Shakespeare's Anthony and Cleopatra, but Dryden confines the action of the story to Alexandria and details the last hours of Anthony and Cleopatra's doomed relationship.
