New Interchange is a complete revision of Interchange, one of the world's most popular and successful English courses. New Interchange is a multi-level course for adults and young adult learners of English from beginning to high-intermediate level. Level Three builds on the foundations for accurate and fluent communication established in Level 2, extending grammatical, lexical, and functional skills. New Interchange teaches students to use English for everyday situations and purposes related to school, work, social life, and leisure. The underlying philosophy is that language learning is more rewarding, meaningful, and effective when used for authentic communication.

This book critically examines current ELT practices visàvis the use of English as an international lingua franca. It bridges the gap between theoretical discussion and the practical concerns of teaching English as an international language, and presents diverse approaches for preparing competent users of English in international contexts.

You've come a great distance to study in a new land, but now that you're here, you've discovered that education is very different in the West. You fear that you do not have the skills to succeed in this new environment. Fear no longer. Here is your guide to all things academic in the West, from educational philosophy to life in the classroom, to relationships with professors. As you read, you will learn how to organize your time, complete a variety of assignments, navigate the library, produce high quality research essays and write examinations with confidence. I admire international students. You have courage. You have motivation. You have endurance. There is every reason for you to do well if you have the proper understanding of Western education. This handbook is intended to help you gain that understanding, accomplish all your educational goals and graduate triumphantly.

Changes 3 Teacher's Book

'Achieve IELTS' prepares students for the International English Language Testing System, providing candidates with a strong grasp of key topics in language and communication.

English for International Relations is written to fulfill students' needs to learn English for Specific Purposes. This book is designed to provide an opportunity to develop students' English skills more communicatively and meaningfully in academic context. It consists of twenty eight units. Each unit presents reading, writing, and speaking sections. Reading section mainly consists of pre-reading, reading comprehension, and vocabulary exercises related to the topic of the text. However, some reading sections have additional authentic texts and their exercises. In writing section, some structures and sentence patterns are presented from the easiest to the most difficult exercises. Meanwhile, in speaking section, students are provided with models and examples followed by practical activities presented in various ways. The materials have been arranged and graded in accordance with students' language levels.

Achieve IELTS offers a unique approach to preparing students for the IELTS examination. It is a two-level, student-centred course that not only prepares students for the test, but also for academic life after IELTS. Achieve IELTS provides an understanding of international academic language and culture so that students will be able to cope confidently in their new academic environment.

New Interchange Resource Book Intro

This workbook (with answer key) provides a language-focused supplement to the student's book. Each four-page unit is split into grammar and a vocabulary section. It follows the topics and language syllabus of the student's book, providing essential revision and an extension of the material. After every four units there is a language review consisting of 50 grammar questions and 50 multiple-choice vocabulary questions based on the previous 4 units. The writing section provides guidance on writing emails, formal letters and faxes. An answer key is provided at the back of the book.

Practice tests for the Use of English (C2 level) This edition of practice tests has been written to closely replicate the Cambridge exam experience, although it is also suitable for any English-language student working at CEFR C2 level. Each of its 200 exam-styled, single-sentence Key Word Transformation (Part 4) assessments carries a lexico-grammatical focus, testing lexis, grammar and vocabulary. Each assessment comprises a sentence followed by a 'key' word and an alternative sentence conveying the same meaning as the first but with a gap in the middle. Use the key word provided to complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. You cannot change the keyword provided. Each correct answer is broken down into two marks. About the author Margaret Cooze holds an MA in Applied Linguistics and an MSc in English Language Teaching Management, and has worked in senior roles at Cambridge English Language Assessment and Cambridge Assessment International Education.

New Interchange is a multi-level series for adult and young-adult learners of English from the beginning to the high-intermediate level. Student's Book A contains units 1-8, the first half of the complete Student's Book. Intro is designed for beginning students needing a thorough, slow-paced presentation of basic functions, grammar structures, and vocabulary. Intro is based on the principle that low-level learning does not equal low-level thinking. Topics are presented in unique ways using interesting real-world information. Beautiful color photographs and illustrations facilitate the teaching of new vocabulary. As with the other levels of Interchange, a complete set of ancillaries, including a video program, is available to make classes interesting and productive.
