English levels CEFR description- A1,A2,B1,B2,C1,C2

English level A1 is the first level of English in the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR), a definition of different language levels written by the Council of Europe. In everyday speech, this level would be called "beginner", and indeed, that is the official level descriptor in CEFR, also used by EF SET.

English A1 level - CEFR definition and tests | EF SET

The six levels within the CEFR are A1, A2, B1, B2, C1, and C2. These six reference levels are widely accepted as the European standard for grading an individual's proficiency in around forty different languages. Each level is divided into four kinds of competences (language skills), describing what a learner is supposed to be able to do in reading, listening, speaking and writing.

CEFR Language Levels > A1, A2, B1, B2, C1 and C2

The CEFR organises language proficiency in six levels, A1 to C2, which can be regrouped into three broad levels: Basic User, Independent User and Proficient User, and that can be further subdivided according to the needs of the local context. The levels are defined through 'can-do' descriptors.
