Fractured Innocence is the fantastic sequel in the IFICS series. It is is sci-fi, dystopia, romance, and thriller all wrapped up in one cyborg package. It is also a far darker and more intense read than was the first, Freak of Nature.

This review is a double review in that I have read both "Freak of Nature" and "Fractured Innocence", the first two books in the IFICS series by Julia Crane. The cyborg concept in sci fi is not a new one but Julia Crane has taken a tack that I personally found very intriguing.
