Journaling for kids isn't just a fun activity and a way for them to write down their awesome experiences. There's a lot of benefits to getting your kids to start writing early in their life. Journal writing can help your children process feelings, build writing skills, and communicate their ideas. Journaling encourages your child to grow while discovering open-ended writing. Instead of writing one assignment and being done, journal writing allows your child to write daily. Grab this beautifully designed 'My First Journal' for your child today and offer the gentle nudge they need to become the next great author. On the back cover, you will find a few ideas for writing prompts - for those occasions your young one isn't quite sure what to write about.

Encourage your child with more ideas and prompts - here's a few more ideas to help encourage your child to keep a daily record of their life. Writing Prompts What is one of your funniest memories? Write a poem about it. Do you have a favorite teacher? What are they like, and what's the best thing they've taught you? Have you been on a vacation? Where did you go, and what was your favorite part? When you get mad or grumpy, what's one thing that helps you calm down? Think about one of your friends or a family member. What do you admire about them? 5 Great Reasons For Children to Keep a Journal Journaling can help your child improve their communication. Writing daily can assist with improving spelling and grammar. Writing also directly influences and improves reading capabilities. Journaling helps your child reflect and process their feelings in a positive manner. Journaling also helps your child to gain insight into their own feelings as well as the people around them. Of course, there are many, many more benefits to your child having a kids journal - but these are a few big ones. Make it a family activity or part of your end-of-night routine and your child will learn to love writing each and everyday. If your child wants to write, but needs a little help (or just wants something to write IN), this book is the answer. With 24 solid writing prompts and a guided setup, your little one will be pumping out words before you know it. From author Jo Michaels comes a fun and interactive journal style book that will spark your child's imagination and get them creating amazing things in no time. Your child will be asked questions like: What is my character's name? How old? Is he/she human? If no, what is he/she? What is he or she going to try to do? What are Mom and Dad's names? Where do they live? Prompt #1: Think of a time you were scared. What were you scared of? How could you be braver? What power would you like to have to help? With pages for drawing book covers and scenes, this journal will keep your child engaged for hours.

Here are prompts to get your writing muscles warmed up and imagination flowing. Prompts range from reflective to creative to silly. If you had to repeat one day from last year over and over, which day would you choose? What would happen if dinosaurs were alive now? What would a dragon order at a restaurant? Prompts are listed by month, but you don't need to wait until January to start writing. Start with whatever day you get this book on. Stick to the prompt listed for each day or skip around as much as you like. It's up to you. Just start writing.

Are you looking for writing prompts for your school age children? Or maybe you are just searching for writing prompts to your kids more interested in creative writing? Well look not further as we have created this book of writing prompt and story starters for kids in Grades 1-3! Why are writing prompts important for young kids? At this age, children have the creative ability to write about a range of simple issues but usually they just need a bit of inspiration on how to start writing. Hence, our story starters can help them to tap into their imagination. To reinforce a good writing habit, it is also necessary to learn writing skills at this age. When kids begin writing, they will further learn how to put their thoughts on paper and how to use words to describe concepts. Now, to get them to enjoy writing, let's help to tap into their creativity of using fun writing prompts. ENJOY!

Kids love to personalize their own book and tell their stories. This is a journal with 12 creative writing prompts. Each prompt has a full page frame to draw a picture, and 3 full pages of elementary handwriting lines so your child can really tell their story. In the end they will have a unique book that's written entirely by them. Write their name in the cloud on the cover and it's their very own "published" book. Some of the prompts... Imagine what would happen if you and a friend dug a huge hole and did not stop digging for a year... One day I flew to the moon and this is a strange thing I found there... I was looking around my house and discovered a magic button, so I pushed it... This book was created for a 2nd grade classroom and would be great for homeschooling as well.
