Asylum and Citizenship in Greece. On the Doorstep of Europe is a vividly written ethnography of the asylum process in Greece, "with its ethos of mystification, unpredictability, and arbitrariness" (p.217), as well as very low percentage of positive decisions. This seminal work explores the crisis (Krisi in Greek, which also refers to judgement) of governance and democracy as Greece is portrayed as the unstable locus of a myriad of problems (financial stability, its position as the EU ...
