From the beginning, God has called leaders to serve His people. For God, Abraham left his homeland. Moses declined Egypt and its riches destroyed Jericho. Elijah confronted King Ahab. Daniel faced the lions; and the James and John forsook their nets. Matthew left his customs And Paul left a life of power and prestige. Despite their trials, these all found the venture satisfying. Paul's account of shipwreck, flogging and hardship glows with suffused excitement. He was having the time of his life! What if he'd said no to Christ? Telling the Philippians things he had given up, Paul declared, "I consider them rubbish." And why? "That I may gain Christ and be found in him" Philippians 3:8-9 enjoy the same perspective, for through His Cross; Jesus opened not only the door of salvation for all who would accept, but the privilege well. Jew, Greek, barbarian, Scythian, slave, free...all may serve the Lord Christ. Some were apostles. Some, prophets. Some will be evangelists, pastors and teachers. All are "for the equipping of the saints, for the work of service, to the building up of the Body of Christ, until we all attain the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of the age." Ephesians 4:12-13. For the Minister of the Gospel, each day offers a new challenge. The phone rings; we are summoned to the bedside. Later in the day, we help arrange a marriage. That evening, we counsel a soul in trouble. No other vocation offers such a wide span of service to mankind. Then when we stand to preach, think of it...in our weak and human hands we hold the truth of God, the supreme answer to the world's needs. The ministry of Christ is not a job, not a profession. It is a calling, and the noblest...the most demanding and at times exasperating, but the most satisfying and rewarding experience human life affords. With Paul, we can truly say, "I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who has strengthened me because He considered me faithful, putting me into service" 1Timothy 1:12. Like the Christian life, the ministry of Christ is a relationship between a disciple and his lord. We serve Him; He develops and strengthens us. We must prepare ourselves first, then our sermons. The very fact that public ministers will work against our spiritual life unless we are careful. We study the Bible, but for a text; we pray, but in front of a group of people in a hospital bed. While attending to these public ministries, our personal devotions may be neglected. Power in preaching comes in direct proportion to time spent in prayer and in the Word. Nothing...not speaking ability nor a forceful personality nor a persuasive manner...can take the place of the power of God, filling and shaping and using the life committed to Him. Are we adequate to the task? Never. We have this treasure in jars of clay, and uses our service nonetheless. Paul finally learned to accept his weakness, so "that the power of Christ may dwell in me" 2Corinthians 12:9. If the truth were known, few of us pray enough. We tend to rely too much upon our cleverness in programming and promotion, but not enough upon the power of God through prayer. Sadly, our churches show it. A definite time and place, preferably early in the morning, where one can shut out the world and feed upon the Word, unburden his heart, and commune with the Father will set the tone for the day and for a lifetime. The minister of Christ by appointment with God need have no anxiety about his work. In his daily walk, he will experience the unfolding hand of God bringing new meaning and effectiveness. He will see his life lifted to a new level he never dreamed possible, a level he could never have attained by himself. Pressed with such a short time to complete His task, Jesus still found time to pray. So must we.

The book of Judges in the bible holds exciting stories of history. These stories all hold truths and real life instances of God attempting to show people how much he cares for them. The story of Samson and Delilah is a well known story. Samson of course being the strongest man ever born, wooed by a beautiful women and then betrayed. This story of betrayal leads this man that God chose to fight one of the largest battles of his time against one man. The book of Judges also contains the great story of Deborah the prophetess who leads the children of Isreal into battle. Her story is of a young lady doing some pretty horrific things to the king that Deborah was up against. Pretending to be his friend, and giving him a glass of wine, killing him with a spike through the head while he was asleep. All these stories are incredible in depth stories, and they have been around for centuries. Their lessons and never ending. So without changing what the bible says, we have put this beautifully written book in to an easy to read format separates the book into stories as chapters, instead of chapters based on better reference. We have also eliminated all the original chapter numbers and split the chapters up into stories. We know that you will enjoy reading this book as much as we do. Over and over again, through his word. This will give you the opportunity to pick up and read a book of the Bible without the pressure of reading 3 chapters of it through in a year. Just sit down and enjoy this book of about 50 pages. Read it over and over again. The bible is how God speaks to us and we need a reference book for him to do that. We need to read the words, and listen to what God thought was important enough to pass on to us over the years. Preserved perfect, purified seven times, the best book ever written. The bible is by far the best read. The book of Judges is one of the best in the bible. This one is volume 2 in the series "The Bible Project". Published by Desiree Fox Digital Media. Take the time to order this book. I can personally say, you will not be able to put it down, and you will connect with the bible in a whole new way. I almost feel guilty for not enjoying it, almost like reading the bible was always supposed to be hard, and tough... Micaiah Bussey AL
