Singing The Ethos Of God
Instead of approaching Scripture with a preconceived general theory of understanding, Singing the Ethos of God instructs the reader in how the fathers practiced the (sung) Psalter in order to become familiar with God's own patterns of communication in and through Scripture, coming in time to shape the lives of those who 'read' appropriately.

God's Passion for Singing. God's heart for setting words to melodies is evident from even a casual reading of the Psalms. Oh sing to the Lord a new song; sing to the Lord, all the earth. Sing to the Lord, bless his name; tell of his salvation from day to day. (Psalm 96:1-2) Sing praises to God, sing praises! Sing praises to our King, sing ...

Words of Wonder: What Happens When We Sing? | Desiring God
Singing is one of the two chief ways in which God's Word dwells in us richly. And, as we observed in the last point, singing is a command. But this command comes with a promise: As we sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs together, we are promised that the Word of Christ will dwell in us richly, which is what we should crave as believers!
