Globalization entails the world becoming a smaller place through political, socio-cultural and economic processes. These processes have salient implications for tourism, and tourism itself is one of the driving forces behind globalization. This book is a collection of conceptual treatises by international scholars about the dynamics and reach of globalization and its relationships with tourism. It anatomizes and deconstructs the global forces, processes and challenges that face the world of tourism. It is international in scope, encyclopedic in its conceptual depth, empirically evocative, and contemporary in its coverage.

The European Agreement concerning the International Carriage of Dangerous Goods by Inland Waterways (ADN) done at Geneva on 26 May 2000 under the auspices of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) and the Central Commission for Navigation on the Rhine (CCNR) has been in force since February 2008. This version has been prepared on the basis of amendments applicable as from 1 January 2017. The Regulations annexed to the ADN contain provisions concerning dangerous substances and articles, their carriage in packages and in bulk on board inland navigation vessels or tank vessels, as well as provisions concerning the construction and operation of such vessels. They also address requirements and procedures for inspections, the issue of certificates of approval, recognition of classification societies, monitoring, and training and examination of experts. They are harmonized to the greatest possible extent with the dangerous goods agreements for other modes of transport.

This book is a timely guide for Small and Medium Enterprise (SME) researchers, policy makers and strategists. SMEs are the most important sources of job creation and local development especially in knowledge-based economies. As turbulence in the globalized economies expands SMEs will have to learn to sustain competitiveness by developing their 'dynamic capabilities'. Based on the findings of a 4-year European and Latin American research project, this book provides a theoretical framework, practical instruments and cases on how SMEs in diverse economic, social and cultural contexts can develop crisis resilience, increase agility, innovate and thus successfully compete in turbulent times.

Russia's attempt to replace the failed Soviet system and its command economy with a capitalist, democratic society has produced a health and social welfare crisis, at considerable human cost. Russia's Torn Safety Nets presents a series of essays by distinguished Russian and American scholars which describe and analyze the consequences of the collapsed socialist system, focusing on issues of health and demography, HIV/AIDS, drug addiction and abuse, the disabled, aging and pensions, education, women and sexism, and social issues in the military. The essays conclude with a section on the private and public efforts to ease the impact of the ongoing transition on the Russia people.

Excerpt from Life and Death: A Reply to the Rev. J. Baldwin Brown's Lectures on Conditional Immortality Tells us, much Of the printed matter put forth by sundry advocates of that doctrine is Of ghastly dullness, and has' proved a weariness to his ?esh. I know of no excuses for the existence Of such literature except these two: first, that every considerable movement in theology has in past ages been accompanied by a ?ood Of pamphlets and articles which would be very painful reading to a modern lecturer; and, secondly, that Providence seems to avenge the steady refusal Of the ablest writers to handle these questions, by permitting the literary activity Of less eloquent brethren, who, if not so learned or brilliant, are Often much more seriously in earnest than their superiors. But genuine love for truth will lead us not to be ashamed even of the most illiterate endeavours to extend its sovereignty In the world. Courageous faith also prompts us to sympathy with all who share it, even if their dialect be Galilean, and their argument how and then a little paradoxical. Yet Mr. Baldwin Brown will not forget, while honouring a few Of us beyond our deserts with SO distinguished a share Of his attention, that on the same side are a multitude Of other writers, ancient and modern, Asiatic, European, and American, whose learning and capacity it would be impertinent alike for me to extol or for him to depreciate.
