

The Ridgeway Path

The Ridgeway Path Public Information Film. Walking The Ridgeway : Day 1 - Overton Hill to Ogbourne St George Walking Britain's Oldest Road - Exploring The Ridgeway National Trail Ridgeway path virtual walking trails Walking The Ridgeway: Day 1 90 MILE HIKING BACKPACKING AND WILD CAMPING TRIP | THE RIDGEWAY Noel Walks The Ridgeway Long Distance Path The Ridgeway Path from Hackpen Him, Wiltshire Walking The Ridgeway - Part 1 UK Public Information Film: The Ridgeway Path (1973)

The Ridgeway In 3 Minutes

Mountain Biking The Oldest Road In Europe | GMBN's Ridgeway Epic Ride CYCLING \u0026 BIKEPACKING THE WHOLE RIDGEWAY WITH CAMP Gravel Biking - Bikepacking the Ridgeway/ King Aldred's Wat 5 Mistakes Beginner Backpackers Make Camping in a Storm with the Polish poncho tent COAST TO COAST, ENGLAND, 2016 Wiltshire Ridgeway - Gravel Riding (UK) The Ridgeway - Day 1 Wild Camping South Dorset Ridgeway SWC Path. The Ridgeway - Day 2 The Ridgeway - Day 4 Dirty Weekend on The Ridgeway - A Bikepacking \u0026 Bivouacking Paradise Ridgeway National Trail Walking The Ridgeway Part 1...

Ancient Trackways - Ridgeway to Pitstone Hill \u0026 Ivinghoe Beacon

South West Coast Path. Penzance to St Ives. 7th 8th 9th May 2017. What To Pack For The Ridgeway | Packing Your Pack Following In Celtic Footsteps | Britain's Ancient Tracks (Archeology Documentary) | Timeline South West Coast Path - North Cornwall The Ridgeway Path

The Ridgeway National Trail passes through a surprisingly remote part of southern central England. From its start in the World Heritage Site of Avebury, it follows a ridge of chalk hills in a northeasterly direction for 87 miles (139 Km) to reach Ivinghoe Beacon lying to the northwest of London.

The Ridgeway - National Trail

All 87 miles of The Ridgeway is open to walkers but parts of the Trail that follow public footpaths between Goring-on-Thames and Ivinghoe Beacon are not promoted to cyclists and horseriders. A good place to start is the official overview leaflet for The Ridgeway which sets out where you can enjoy the various activities, confident that you are complying with the law and respecting local communities.

The Ridgeway Information - National Trail

The Ridgeway National Trail a walking route in a surprisingly remote part of southern central England. It travels in a northeasterly direction for 87 miles (139 Km) from its start in the World Heritage Site of Avebury. As Britain's oldest road The Ridgeway still follows the same route over the high ground used since prehistoric times by travelers, herdsmen and soldiers.

Route Description - The Ridgeway - National Trail

The Ridgeway. Length: 87 miles, 131 km. Type: National Trail. Time required: 6 days. Region: South England. Start: Overton Hill, Wiltshire. End: Ivinghoe Beacon, Buckinghamshire. Difficulty: Easy. When to Walk: All year. Official website. There can be few finer ways you can spend in the south of England than striding purposefully over downsland on a warm, sunny day.

Planning your Ridgeway walk - Planning Your Own Walk ...

The Ridgeway. Step back in time on this wonderful 85 mile route which follows an ancient chalk ridge route used by prehistoric man The trail starts at Overton Hill in Wiltshire on the edge of the Marlborough Downs and heads east through the Chiltern Hills to Ivinghoe Beacon in Buckinghamshire. Highlights on this fascinating route include a series of iron age forts, the famous Uffington White Horse, the beautiful Chiltern Hills and a lovely stretch along the River Thames at Goring-on-Thames.

The Ridgeway National Trail Walking Route

Find out more about The Ridgeway . Choose and book a National Trail break or be inspired by our suggested itineraries. Read facts about the Trail and watch the Trail video. The Ridgeway Information & Map . Find out about the Trail and use the interactive map to explore accommodation, services and attractions on the route.

The Ridgeway - Maps - National Trail

The Ridgeway Itinerary Use our itinerary planner to create a customised trip, based on your preferences. Find points of interest using the map tool, then save them to your itinerary planner to build a personalised trip. Save your plans using the 'Save to My Rucksack' button.

The Ridgeway Custom Itinerary - National Trail

There the path follows the river into Wallingford, for a comfortable campsite and facilities. The next day you ascend the ancient Grim's Ditch to reach the ridge once more and enter the Chilterns.

The Ridgeway – Trail Planner

The Ridgeway offers a journey through magnificent scenery, and also a passage through time. This is an ancient track, so old that no one can even put a date on it – all we can say is that it was almost certainly in use as a trading route in the New Stone Age, and that began about 6000 years ago.

Friends of the Ridgeway – Walking The Ridgeway

Where To Download The Ridgeway Path

The Ridgeway is a ridgeway or ancient trackway described as Britain's oldest road. The section clearly identified as an ancient trackway extends from Wiltshire along the chalk ridge of the Berkshire Downs to the River Thames at the Goring Gap, part of the Icknield Way which ran, not always on the ridge, from Salisbury Plain to East Anglia. The route was adapted and extended as a National Trail, created in 1972. The Ridgeway National Trail follows the ancient Ridgeway from Overton Hill, near Aveb

The Ridgeway - Wikipedia

One of the links in a prehistoric route, often called the Greater Ridgeway, extending from the South Devon Coast to The Wash, comprising the Wessex Ridgeway (Lyme Regis to Overton), Ridgeway National Trail (Overton to Ivinghoe), Icknield Way (Ivinghoe to Thetford) and Peddars Way (Knettishall to Hunstanton).

Ridgeway National Trail - LDWA Long Distance Paths

The Ridgeway runs from Overton Hill in Wiltshire to the rolling hills of the Chilterns in Buckinghamshire. East of the River Thames at Goring the trail becomes a footpath for walkers only so we have mapped out our own cycling route that follows bridleways.

The Ridgeway - Walk and Cycle

The 87 mile (139 km) Ridgeway National Trail begins

Where To Download The Ridgeway Path

at Overton Hill, near Avebury, and heads east on a long and particularly beautiful stretch of downland path along the North Wessex Downs - with wide, exhilarating views over the rolling countryside of Wiltshire.

Ridgeway Walk | Walking the Ridgeway | Celtic Trails ...
The Ridgeway National Trail, one of 15 National Trails in England and Wales, travels for 87 miles through wonderful countryside. It passes through the North Wessex Downs and The Chilterns, both ...

The Ridgeway National Trail - Google My Maps
A delightful autumn walk on the Ridgeway National Trail I walked the entire Ridgeway National Trail in England from Overton Hill near Avebury to Ivinghoe Beacon near Tring (87 miles, 140 km) over 7 ½ days in the autumn of 2019. I carried a 20 lb pack, wore Merrell low-cut

The Ridgeway National Trail (Wiltshire) - 2020 All You

...

The valley is situated between Oxfordshire in The Chilterns AONB and Berkshire in the North Wessex Downs AONB. It forms an intersection of three ancient trading routes: The Ridgeway, Icknield Way and River Thames.

Exploring the Goring Gap on the Ridgeway & Thames

Where To Download The Ridgeway Path

Path ...

The Ridgeway Explore the most ancient path in England Widely recognised as England's oldest road, this beautiful, prehistoric trail stretches over 87 miles from Overton Hill near the Avebury World Heritage site in Wiltshire to Ivinghoe Beacon in Buckinghamshire.

The Ridgeway - Chiltern Society

long distance trails, The Ridgeway National Trail, walking for mental and spiritual health, Walks The Ridgeway – Accommodation and Where to Stay Posted by Jackie on May 28, 2016 In August 2015 I walked the Ridgeway National Trail solo.

The Ridgeway Path Public Information Film. Walking The Ridgeway : Day 1 - Overton Hill to Ogbourne St George Walking Britain's Oldest Road - Exploring The Ridgeway National Trail Ridgeway path virtual walking trails Walking The Ridgeway: Day 1 90 MILE HIKING BACKPACKING AND WILD CAMPING TRIP | THE RIDGEWAY Noel Walks The Ridgeway Long Distance Path The Ridgeway Path from Hackpen Him, Wiltshire Walking The Ridgeway - Part 1 UK Public Information Film: The Ridgeway Path \(1973\)

The Ridgeway In 3 Minutes

Mountain Biking The Oldest Road In Europe |

GMBN's Ridgeway Epic Ride
~~CYCLING~~
~~BIKEPACKING THE WHOLE RIDGEWAY WITH~~
~~CAMP~~ Gravel Biking - Bikepacking the Ridgeway/
King Aldred's Wat 5 Mistakes Beginner Backpackers
~~Make Camping in a Storm with the Polish poncho tent~~
COAST TO COAST, ENGLAND, 2016 Wiltshire
Ridgeway - Gravel Riding (UK) The Ridgeway - Day 1
Wild Camping South Dorset Ridgeway SWC Path. The Ridgeway - Day 2 The Ridgeway - Day 4 Dirty
Weekend on The Ridgeway - A Bikepacking
Bivouacking Paradise Ridgeway National Trail
Walking The Ridgeway Part 1...

Ancient Trackways - Ridgeway to Pitstone Hill
Ivinghoe Beacon

South West Coast Path. Penzance to St Ives. 7th 8th
9th May 2017. What To Pack For The Ridgeway |
Packing Your Pack Following In Celtic Footsteps |
Britain's Ancient Tracks (Archeology Documentary) |
Timeline South West Coast Path - North Cornwall The Ridgeway Path

The Ridgeway National Trail passes through a surprisingly remote part of southern central England.
From its start in the World Heritage Site of Avebury,
it follows a ridge of chalk hills in a northeasterly
direction for 87 miles (139 Km) to reach Ivinghoe
Beacon lying to the northwest of London.

The Ridgeway - National Trail

All 87 miles of The Ridgeway is open to walkers but parts of the Trail that follow public footpaths between Goring-on-Thames and Ivinghoe Beacon are not promoted to cyclists and horseriders. A good place to start is the official overview leaflet for The Ridgeway which sets out where you can enjoy the various activities, confident that you are complying with the law and respecting local communities.

The Ridgeway Information - National Trail

The Ridgeway National Trail a walking route in a surprisingly remote part of southern central England. It travels in a northeasterly direction for 87 miles (139 Km) from its start in the World Heritage Site of Avebury. As Britain's oldest road The Ridgeway still follows the same route over the high ground used since prehistoric times by travelers, herdsman and soldiers.

Route Description - The Ridgeway - National Trail

The Ridgeway. Length: 87 miles, 131 km. Type: National Trail. Time required: 6 days. Region: South England. Start: Overton Hill, Wiltshire. End: Ivinghoe Beacon, Buckinghamshire. Difficulty: Easy. When to Walk: All year. Official website. There can be few finer ways you can spend in the south of England than striding purposefully over downsland on a warm, sunny day.

Planning your Ridgeway walk - Planning Your Own Walk ...

The Ridgeway. Step back in time on this wonderful 85 mile route which follows an ancient chalk ridge route used by prehistoric man The trail starts at Overton Hill in Wiltshire on the edge of the Marlborough Downs and heads east through the Chiltern Hills to Ivinghoe Beacon in Buckinghamshire. Highlights on this fascinating route include a series of iron age forts, the famous Uffington White Horse, the beautiful Chiltern Hills and a lovely stretch along the River Thames at Goring-on-Thames.

The Ridgeway National Trail Walking Route

Find out more about The Ridgeway . Choose and book a National Trail break or be inspired by our suggested itineraries. Read facts about the Trail and watch the Trail video. The Ridgeway Information & Map . Find out about the Trail and use the interactive map to explore accommodation, services and attractions on the route.

The Ridgeway - Maps - National Trail

The Ridgeway Itinerary Use our itinerary planner to create a customised trip, based on your preferences. Find points of interest using the map tool, then save them to your itinerary planner to build a personalised trip. Save your plans using the 'Save to My Rucksack' button.

The Ridgeway Custom Itinerary - National Trail

Where To Download The Ridgeway Path

There the path follows the river into Wallingford, for a comfortable campsite and facilities. The next day you ascend the ancient Grim's Ditch to reach the ridge once more and enter the Chilterns.

The Ridgeway – Trail Planner

The Ridgeway offers a journey through magnificent scenery, and also a passage through time. This is an ancient track, so old that no one can even put a date on it – all we can say is that it was almost certainly in use as a trading route in the New Stone Age, and that began about 6000 years ago.

Friends of the Ridgeway – Walking The Ridgeway

The Ridgeway is a ridgeway or ancient trackway described as Britain's oldest road. The section clearly identified as an ancient trackway extends from Wiltshire along the chalk ridge of the Berkshire Downs to the River Thames at the Goring Gap, part of the Icknield Way which ran, not always on the ridge, from Salisbury Plain to East Anglia. The route was adapted and extended as a National Trail, created in 1972. The Ridgeway National Trail follows the ancient Ridgeway from Overton Hill, near Aveb

The Ridgeway - Wikipedia

One of the links in a prehistoric route, often called the Greater Ridgeway, extending from the South Devon Coast to The Wash, comprising the Wessex Ridgeway

Where To Download The Ridgeway Path

(Lyme Regis to Overton), Ridgeway National Trail (Overton to Ivinghoe), Icknield Way (Ivinghoe to Thetford) and Peddars Way (Knettishall to Hunstanton).

Ridgeway National Trail - LDWA Long Distance Paths

The Ridgeway runs from Overton Hill in Wiltshire to the rolling hills of the Chilterns in Buckinghamshire. East of the River Thames at Goring the trail becomes a footpath for walkers only so we have mapped out our own cycling route that follows bridleways.

The Ridgeway - Walk and Cycle

The 87 mile (139 km) Ridgeway National Trail begins at Overton Hill, near Avebury, and heads east on a long and particularly beautiful stretch of downland path along the North Wessex Downs - with wide, exhilarating views over the rolling countryside of Wiltshire.

Ridgeway Walk | Walking the Ridgeway | Celtic Trails ...

The Ridgeway National Trail, one of 15 National Trails in England and Wales, travels for 87 miles through wonderful countryside. It passes through the North Wessex Downs and The Chilterns, both ...

The Ridgeway National Trail - Google My Maps

A delightful autumn walk on the Ridgeway National Trail I walked the entire Ridgeway National Trail in

Where To Download The Ridgeway Path

England from Overton Hill near Avebury to Ivinghoe Beacon near Tring (87 miles, 140 km) over 7 ½ days in the autumn of 2019. I carried a 20 lb pack, wore Merrell low-cut

The Ridgeway National Trail (Wiltshire) - 2020 All You

...

The valley is situated between Oxfordshire in The Chilterns AONB and Berkshire in the North Wessex Downs AONB. It forms an intersection of three ancient trading routes: The Ridgeway, Icknield Way and River Thames.

Exploring the Goring Gap on the Ridgeway & Thames Path ...

The Ridgeway Explore the most ancient path in England Widely recognised as England's oldest road, this beautiful, prehistoric trail stretches over 87 miles from Overton Hill near the Avebury World Heritage site in Wiltshire to Ivinghoe Beacon in Buckinghamshire.

The Ridgeway - Chiltern Society

long distance trails, The Ridgeway National Trail, walking for mental and spiritual health, Walks The Ridgeway – Accommodation and Where to Stay Posted by Jackie on May 28, 2016 In August 2015 I walked the Ridgeway National Trail solo.