It's amazing. I don't know why, but this book, the Transall Saga, shows up on there more often than any other book. My brother has had this book, and most Gary Paulsen books, for years, but I never read any of them but Hatchet. But since I kept seeing it online, I decided to see what all the fuss was about. This book, for all the promises of scifi, is very much like Hatchet. Boy gets stranded ...

The Transall Saga in my opinion is Paulsen's best book and I recommend it highly to readers of all ages. Paulsen wrote a Sci-Fi novel that is a young adult tribute to Edgar Rice Burroughs' "John Carter series" and "Planet of the Apes." The story is similar to that of both stories, that is centers around a main character that is transported to another, more primitive world. Reading the book ...
