Given the last couple of years’ turnover in the memberships of the Mattapoisset River Valley Water Supply Protection Advisory Committee and District Commission, the commission thought it best to ask Koch representatives to reboot its presentation on the water treatment plant project when they visit the committee/commission on Tuesday, January 12.

The Wanderer

The Wanderer is an Old English poem preserved only in an anthology known as the Exeter Book, a manuscript dating from the late 10th century. It counts 115 lines of alliterative verse. As is often the case in Anglo-Saxon verse, the composer and compiler are anonymous, and within the manuscript the poem is untitled.

The Wanderer, is like to this, a broken man speaking:
Ne maeg werigmod wryde withstondan ne se hreo hyge helpe gef remman : for thon domgeorne dreorigne oft in hrya breostcofan bindath faeste.
“For the doom-eager bindeth fast his blood-bedraggled heart in his breast” — an apology for speaking at all, and speech
