The steps are: feel, felt, found, and here they are. Feel. Since relationships are integral to business success, it's not surprising that the first step involves acknowledging the other person's feelings. Tom said that one way to do this is simply to tell the person that you can relate to how they feel.

2) Keep the Yes. Take the first half of the Yes-But, all the stuff after Yes and before But, and put a period at the end of it. Just stay with that for a minute. Repeat it as a final sentence. Then elaborate on it. Tell yourself more about the Yes. Check in with how that makes you feel. 3) Take action on the But. Now we face the negative part.
