Interpreting and translation are two closely related linguistic disciplines. Yet they are rarely performed by the same people. The difference in skills, training, aptitude and even language knowledge are so substantial that few people can do both successfully on a professional level. On the surface, the difference between interpreting and translation is only the difference ...

For better or for worse, machine translation is now in integral part of standard translation workflows. Five years ago, translators might have received a partially, pre-translated text to work on thanks to translation memory matches. Today, they receive a fully translated text and are no longer tasked with translating but rather post-editing. Are translation memories and glossaries still ...
